A screenshot of the wvnpa.org website. The browser address bar shows "wvnpa.org". The website has a dark navigation bar with "LOGIN" and a main menu with "About", "Membership", "Events", "Resources", "Issues", and "Blog". The "Membership" dropdown menu is open, showing "Apply", "Membership Benefits", and "Renew Your Membership". The main content area features a blue banner with the tagline "Serving Nonprofits. Strengthening West Virginia." and social media icons. Below the banner is a large graphic of the West Virginia map with the text "WEST VIRGINIA nonprofit leadership". To the right of the graphic is a news article titled "2020 Virtual West Virginia Nonprofit Leadership Summit" with a sub-headline "Rising to the Challenge!" and a "Continue Reading" link.

■ Nominees

- Christine Spaulding, The Greater Kanawha Valley Foundation
- Jordan Wooldridge, BB&T (now Truist)
- Paula Marrone-Reese, Good Shepherd Caregivers

Christine Spaulding

The Greater Kanawha Valley Foundation

Christine joined The Greater Kanawha Valley Foundation team in 2007. Previously, she was the Accountant/Grants Manager/AmeriCorps Director for the United Way of Central WV/LifeBridge AmeriCorps. In 2014, Christine furthered her education by earning an MBA from the University of Charleston. A strong community advocate, she volunteers by reading to at-risk youth, fundraising for charitable causes, and providing tax return assistance to marginalized populations. Her professional interests include accounting, taxes, program, and development. Christine serves as a site manager for the VITA (Volunteer Income Tax Assistance) program; she is also a member of FAOG (Finance, Administration & Operations Group) and AICPA (The American Institute of Certified Public Accountants), as well as Charleston Estate Planning Council. Beyond her professional and volunteer pursuits, Christine is very family-oriented. She and her husband love spending time with their daughter, son-in-law, and granddaughter, Carleigh. Outside of her family and community building activities, Christine enjoys Zumba, concerts, reading, and traveling.

Jordan Wooldridge BB&T (now Truist)

Jordan Wooldridge is a Beckley, WV native and a 2009 graduate of Woodrow Wilson High School. Jordan went on to attend Marshall University graduating in 2014 with a BBA in Finance and Risk Management & Insurance with minors in Accounting and Economics. Jordan is Vice-President of the Business Banking Team within the Commercial Community Bank of Truist Bank (formally BB&T). Jordan is a member of the Beckley Rotary Club, WV Home Builders Association board of directors member, and board of directors member of the Beckley Raleigh County Chamber of Commerce. In his “off-time” he enjoys cars, pickle ball, running and spending time with his fiancé, Lauren, and family.

Paula Marrone-Reese

Good Shepherd Caregivers

Paula is the CEO of Good Shepherd Caregivers serving seniors and those living with a disability that benefit from having assistance to remain living on their own. After earning a degree in Early Childhood Education, she focused on Organizational Leadership & Development. Paula has a Master of Arts in Management. She is a speaker on Board/Staff Relationship and Grant Writing and is active in training child care workers in WV. She lives with her family in Shepherdstown, WV.
